ETHICAL DILEMMA

Raghunath is running a small shop in a small town is content with earning his frugal living. He is religious in outlook and compassionate towards others. One afternoon, when it was raining, an old man, a poor vendor of herbs named Satyadas comes to his shop. He is running a high temperature. Raghunath provides him food and shelter. In the morning, the visitor is again provided hospitality. He then leaves for another destination leaving behind a pouch containing six gold coins and a ring studded with gems. Raghunath waits for him for several months to return and then on the persuasion of his wife Jamuna, he sells the contents of the pouch one by one, sets up a bigger shop, and builds a comfortable house for himself to live in. He starts life with dignity in society. But one fine day, suddenly Satyadas makes his appearance. Raghunath is shocked. He is not as hospitable as before. On the contrary, he thinks as if a devil has turned up and wishes he leaves quickly. As Satyadas is about to leave, conscientious Raghunath asks: did you leave behind something here when you visited last time?"Satyadas says: "I don't know. God knows everything.

Questions

1. In your opinion, Raghunath was with deep sense of guilt and remorse? Is so, how and why?
2. Do you find the three imaginary characters are created for three conflicting aspects of a single mind? Morality, Guilt and Greed. Discuss these three characters based on your thinking.
3. Why could Raghunath not have the moral courage to practice transparency and tell Satyadas: "On your previous visit you left behind some gold coins and a ring. I waited a long time for you to return. Only then I sold them to invest in my business and in building a house. I want to repay you. Let us work out a repayment schedule? Comment.
