11 1 x 10 = 10 Marks

Lately many companies have planned for significant investment in organized retailing in India. Several factors have prompted their decisions in this regard. Customer income is rising. People have developed a taste for better quality products even though they may have to pay more. The aspiration levels have increased. The government has also liberalized its economic policies in this regard and permitted even cent per cent foreign direct investment in some sectors of retailing.

Questions

i) Identify changes in business environment under different heads — economic, social, technological, political and legal that have facilitated the companies' decisions to plan significant investments in organized retailing.

ii) What has been the impact of these changes with regard to globalization and privatization?
