2	a. What are the strategies of reading? b. Read the following passage and answer the questions given below. What, one wonders, is the lowest common denominator of Indian culture today? The attractive Hema Malini? The songs of Vividh Bharati? Or the mouth-watering Masala Dosa? Delectable as these may be, each yield pride of place to that false symbol of a new era-the synthetic fibre. In less than twenty years the nylon sari and the terylene shirt have swept the countryside, penetrated to the farthest corners of the land and persuaded every common man, woman and child that the key to success in the present-day world lie in artificial fibers: glass nylon, crepe nylon, tery mixes, polyesters and what have you. More than the bicycles, the wristwatch or the transistor radio, synthetic clothes have come to represent the first step away from the village square. The village lass treasures the flashy nylon sari in her trousseau most delay; the village youth gets a great kick out of his cheap terrycot shirt and trousers, the nearest he can approximate to the expensive synthetic sported by his wealthy citybred contemporaries. And the Neo-rich craze for 'phoren' is now here more apparent than in the price that people will pay for smuggled, stolen, begged, borrowed second hand or thrown away synthetics. Alas! Even the uniformity of nylon. Q.1. 'The lowest common denominator' of the Indian culture today is – (A) Hema Malini (B) Songs of Vividh Bharati (C) Masala Dosa (D) Synthetic fibre Q.2.
